

Proclamation
Presented

In Recognition of the Hawai'i Public Housing Authority
❖ 2013 Employee Awards ❖

WHEREAS, the Hawai'i Public Housing Authority is the sole public housing agency for the State of Hawai'i, providing safe, decent, sanitary and temporary housing to low-income families; and

WHEREAS, the Hawai'i Public Housing Authority administers more than 6,000 State and Federal public housing units on five islands, and more than 2,000 rental assistance vouchers on the island of O'ahu; and

WHEREAS, the Hawai'i Public Housing Authority's desire to improve the lives of our most economically challenged residents drives all of the staff at the department to continue to serve with professionalism, pride and the Aloha Spirit; and

WHEREAS, the Hawai'i Public Housing Authority will celebrate its 2013 Employee Awards on November 6, 2013, to honor its hard working and truly deserving public servants, employees who have delivered exemplary service and worked tirelessly to assist Hawai'i's low-income families with housing assistance;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NEIL ABERCROMBIE, Governor, and I, SHAN S. TSUTSUI, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim November 6, 2013, as in Hawai'i and ask the people of the Aloha State to join us in recognizing the staff of the Hawai'i Public Housing Authority who provide housing assistance and hope for those who need assistance with public housing.

"HAWAII PUBLIC HOUSING AUTHORITY EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION DAY"

DONE at the State Capitol, in Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this fourth day of November 2013.

NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

SHAN S. TSUTSUI
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i
